

Who Do You Say I Am?

People were not quite sure who Jesus was. Read Matthew 16:14. In this Gospel, when Jesus asked his disciples, "Who do you say I am?" Peter made a statement of faith. Read Matthew 16:16 and write Peter's answer to Jesus' question on the following lines.

At first, Peter did not really understand who Jesus was. He came to understand over time, as Jesus revealed himself to Peter. Each of the Scripture passages in the picture tells one way Jesus gradually revealed that he was the Messiah and the true, eternal Son of God.

Select one passage and find it in the Gospels. Ask the Holy Spirit to enlighten you so that you may come to understand Jesus better. Then read the passage slowly, asking yourself, "What does this tell me about Jesus?"

On the lines below, write what was happening and what Jesus did in the passage you read. Then talk to the Lord, telling him who you say he is and asking him to show his power in your life. Add your conversation to the lines.
